

Law Enforcement Leadership Conference

At the Mayan Guest Ranch, Bandera, Texas

September 17 – 22, 2017

Dear Law Enforcement and Public Safety Leaders:

The Texas Police Association is pleased to announce the 147th Session of our "Law Enforcement Leadership Conference" at the Mayan Dude Ranch in Bandera, Texas. The Conference will begin at 4:00 p.m. Sunday, September 17th, and will conclude at 12:00 noon, Friday, September 22nd, 2017.

Topics presented and discussed will include: Proven Leadership (Management by Leadership); Liability Issues for Law Enforcement Managers, (including Legal Aspects of Employee Disciplinary Procedures); Leadership, Motivation and Development, Character Driven Success; and other subjects. Individual presentations, with a lot of class participation, are the standard for instruction.

Participation in the Conference is encouraged for those in Leadership roles including administrative, management, supervisory, or advisory positions in any Law Enforcement or Public Safety Agency. Space is limited, and due to the popularity of this program, registrations will be confirmed on a first received basis.

The total cost for the entire program including 5 nights lodging, 3 home-cooked meals per day, refreshments, & entertainment and 40 hours of high quality training for only $845.00 for TPA members and $875.00* for non-members, and can be submitted with the registration, or can be paid upon arrival. Credit Cards (American Express, Discover, Master Card, & Visa) are accepted. Travel expenses to and from Bandera are the responsibility of the individual or his/her agency.

Forty (40) TCOLE credit hours of in-service training will be given to those who complete the Conference.

Please be advised that, although single room occupancy is the rule, participants may be asked to share a room with another participant, if the need should dictate.

Request for a refund of the registration fee cannot be considered after September 5th.

Raul Vargas
Executive Director
